Sugar Stamp No. 35 becomes valid February 1, 1945.

SHOES: Airplane stamps Nos. 1, 2, and 3 now valid.

Federal Judge S. C. Mize granted permanent injunction against four Mississippi firms for violations of OPA ceiling prices. Named in the permanent injunctions are H. B. Nelken, doing business as The Pair Store at Greenville, C. Abraham, Belzoni, and R. J. Brady and R. E. Harrison of Jackson.

Permanent injunctions had already been issued against F. Nicola and Tom Joseph Grocery Co., at Vicksburg while temporary orders had been issued against Joe Maggi and M. E. Moses at Vicksburg.

Treble damages are being sought from Eugene C. Rowan for over ceiling prices on sugar for a total of $1,914.

Housewives have six more red stamps for obtaining meats and fats, W. E. Holcomb, OPA District Director, announced.

Since the February rationing period, which began January 28, will last five weeks instead of the usual four, six red stamps, instead of the usual five, given for four-week ration periods, were made good. The stamps, each worth 10 points, are Z-5, Y-5, A-2, B-2, C-2 and D-2.

Mississippi housewives will receive their usual blue point allotment of five stamps worth ten points each on February 1.

The stamps are H-2, J-2, K-2, L-2 and M-2.

Most point values will continue unchanged during February, W. E. Holcomb announced.

Creamery butter will continue at 24 red points per pound. Also continuing unchanged are point values for all meats except a few previously point-free bacon items and fat pork cuts, which are now being given values of one point each. Points are being restored because the wholesale cuts from which they are made also are used in the production of lard, which has been restored to rationing, the Director explained.

The ration value of margarine was increased from two to three points per pound on January 28.

Present point value for all blue stamp foods remain unchanged.

A joint OPA-WPB clothing program proposed to the trade in Washington last week is designed to reduce the average family's clothing bill by 6 or 7 percent and to make more of the essential low and medium priced clothing available in more stores.

AIR MEDAL TO LIEUT. HERLIHY MORERE

An Eighth Air Force Bomber Station, England—2nd Lt. Herlihy J. Morere, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Morere of Pass Christian, Miss., who is serving here as a pilot, has been awarded an Air Medal, 306th Bombardment Group as a pilot, has been awarded an Air Medal, it was recently announced by his commanding officer, Colonel James S. Sutton, of Findley, Ohio.

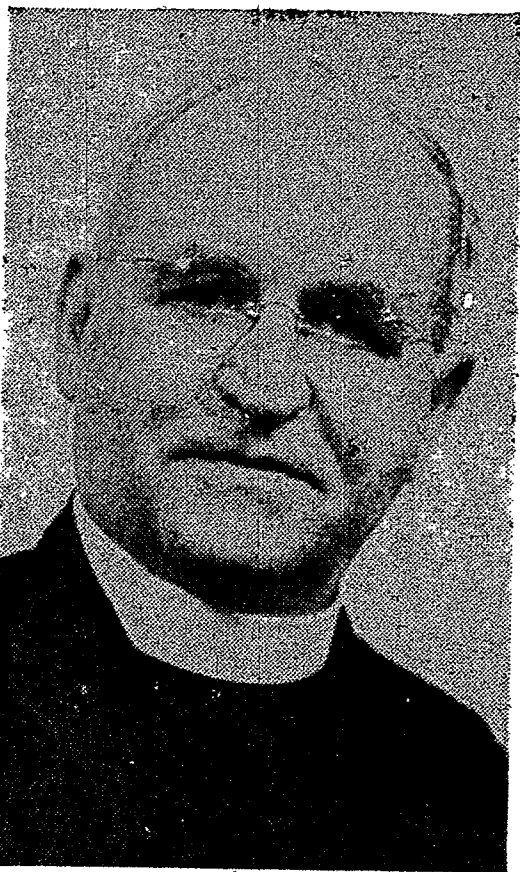

As the pilot of a Flying Fortress, the duties of Lieutenant Morere are not only to fly the giant bomber but to keep in constant touch by interphone with his nine-man crew ready to give orders and make decisions instantly. Nine lives and a $250,000 airplane depend on his judgment and flying ability.

The efforts of men like Lieutenant Morere recently received official recognition when the First Bombardment Division, of which this group is a part, was awarded a Presidential Unit Citation for "extraordinary heroism" displayed in carrying out the highly successful attack on the enemy aircraft plants at Oshersleben and Halberstadt, Germany, despite extremely heavy fighter opposition.

Prior to his entry into the Army Air Forces Morere was employed as an aeronautical engineer by the Hughes Aircraft Company in Culver City, California.

Lieutenant Morere attended St. Stanislaus in Pass Christian, Mississippi, and was a member of the St. Stanislaus High School.

RT. REV. ANDREW J. GMELCH INVESTED AS MONSIGNOR WITH RANK OF DOMESTIC PRELATE

RIGHT REV. MONSIGNOR A. J. GMELCH

The congregation of Our Lady of the Gulf Church on Friday, January 26th witnessed the elevation of their pastor, Right Reverend Andrew J. Gmelch to the Monsignor with the title of Domestic Prelate.

The Investiture of Monsignor Gmelch by the Most Reverend Bishop R. O. Gerow took place at 11:00 o'clock A. M. The main and side altars were decorated with deep pink carnations with a background of potted palms. The procession, composed of a cross-bearer between two acolytes, a censor-bearer, altar boys, a guard of honor composed of members of the fourth degree Knights of Columbus, visiting clergy, the Monsignor, the newly elevated Monsignor, and Bishop Gerow, marched from the rectory into the church, and as the procession entered the sanctuary, the Bishop took his seat on the throne arranged for him at the gospel side of the altar.

Following the Bishop's elevation, the Monsignor Gmelch, assisted by Rev. Fr. F. X. Balles, SVD of Jackson, Mississippi and formerly of St. Rose de Lima Parish of this city. Train bearers were Bernard Wolfe and Edmond Aime.

Right Reverend Monsignor Gmelch took his seat on the opposite, or epistle side of the altar, attended by Reverend Father Francis Deignan, of Ocean Springs and Reverend Father Joseph Schermesser of Seneca.

Immediately following the procession into church the apostolic brief was read by Rev. Fr. Leo F. Fahey of Hattiesburg, who served as master of ceremonies. Following the Investiture, solemn high Mass was celebrated by Monsignor Gmelch, assisted by Reverend Father Schermesser and Deignan as Deacon and Sub-Deacon. The choir was composed of students of St. Augustine Seminary under the direction of Rev. Fr. Posjona.

Following the church services Monsignor Gmelch entertained the visiting clergy at a banquet at Hotel Reed, with Father Fahey as toastmaster. Talks were made by Rev. P. A. Roy, S. J., President of Loyola University in New Orleans; Very Rev. Monsignor H. J. Jacobi, Director of Catholic Charities in New Orleans; Very Rev. Monsignor Lucien Callicott of Houma, Louisiana; Most Rev. Bishop R. O. Gerow and Right Rev. Monsignor Gmelch.

On Friday night a public reception was held at St. Joseph's Auditorium, where the people of Bay St. Louis were able to extend their personal congratulations to Monsignor Gmelch. Mr. Howard LeTissier was master of ceremonies and he introduced Mr. Joseph O. Mauffray, General Chairman of the arrangement Committee for the Investiture and reception, and he in turn introduced Mr. Lucien M. Gex, prominent young attorney of Bay St. Louis, who expressed words of congratulation to the newly elevated Monsignor and tendered to him a purse from the people of Bay St. Louis.

The Right Reverend Monsignor responded with an expression of appreciation, thanking the people of his parish and of this city for the splendid cooperation he has received during the twenty-seven years that he has been here, and for the good will and courtesies that have been extended to him during this time.

On Monday morning, January 28th, a high Mass was celebrated by Monsignor Gmelch for the children of the parish and this was followed by a reception at St. Joseph's Auditorium for the school children, giving them an opportunity to extend their personal congratulations and felicitations to their pastor. He in turn gave the students a holiday from school.

The people of Bay St. Louis are highly elated over the signal honor that has been paid to Monsignor Gmelch. He came to this parish on January 30th, 1918 and has been in our midst for twenty-seven years. He has endeared himself, not only to his parishioners, but the people of all faiths admire and respect him. It was, indeed, a signal honor to have him elevated to the Monsignor rank.

BAN ON UNNECESSARY LIGHTING COMPUSSORY, POWER OFFICIAL SAYS

Public Cooperation Requested on WPB Move to Conserve Coal

L. P. Sweatt, President and General Manager, Mississippi Power Company, Gulfport, announced today that the Company, acting on orders received from the War Production Board, had notified customers affected by the new "brown out" regulations and that the Company expects to do everything possible to cooperate with the War Production Board in making this order immediately effective. Mr. Sweatt emphasized that this program was not necessary on account of any shortage of electricity but because it takes a pound of coal, or equivalent fuel, to make a kilowatt-hour of electricity, and that since the 1945 coal supply was estimated to be forty million tons under requirements War Mobilizer James F. Byrnes was serious when he ordered a ban on non essential lighting.

Mr. Sweatt further emphasized that his ban is compulsory when it goes into effect on February 1st and that the Company is required to warn anyone failing to comply. If they then fail to comply the War Production Board Regional Office has the responsibility for prescribing punishment by fine and imprisonment or ordering discontinuance of electrical service. Previous voluntary dimouts have been successful in the area served by Mississippi Power Company, and it is not anticipated that rigid methods will be likely in this instance. The Company's customers in the past have willingly cooperated in all government efforts to prosecute the war more vigorously.

It was an early and successful conclusion. The Order principally affects stores, restaurants, and other retail establishments, industries and residences are not wholly exempt. For example, large signs on factory buildings and in yards or from lights in the windows of residences must be discontinued. The War Production Board is appealing for voluntary economy in the use of electricity by all customers together with compulsory reduction for advertising display and ornamental purposes. According to Mr. Sweatt, the War Production Board will prohibit:

1. Outdoor advertising and outdoor promotional lighting.
2. Outdoor display lighting except where necessary for the conduct of business of outdoor establishments.
3. Outdoor decorative and outdoor ornamental lighting.
4. Show window lighting except where necessary for interior illumination.
5. Marquee lighting in excess of 60 watts for each marquee.
6. White wall street lighting in excess of the amount determined by local public authority to be necessary for public safety.
7. Outdoor sign lighting except for directional or identification signs certified to be necessary by public authorities for police protection or safety, traffic control, hospitals, doctors, or similar community services.

Red Stamp V-5 Omitted From Ration Calendar

Sugar ration stamp No. 34, now in use, becomes invalid after February 28, the State Office of Price Administration announced here Saturday. Press reports from Washington had inadvertently given another date on which the sugar stamp becomes invalid.

A decision of far-reaching importance against an automobile company for refusing to sell a car unless another one was traded in was rendered by Federal Judge Allan Cox at Oxford, the State Office of Price Administration announced today.

Judge Cox in an injunction proceeding against the East Motor Company at Grenada, issued a restraining order against the defendant for its alleged refusal to sell a car unless the prospective purchaser offered a car as a trade-in. The order of the Federal Judge restrains the Company from making the trade-in proposal a condition of sale of automobiles or motor vehicles.

Two other injunctions, one a temporary restraining order to be heard for final adjudication February 2 at Oxford, were also granted by Federal Judge Cox. In one, a final injunction was issued against James A. McCrary, doing business as McCrary Motor Co., at Columbus, restraining the defendant from violation of ceiling prices on automobiles.

The temporary restraining order was granted in the case of Mrs. Alice Baker and Doris May Baker, minor, individually and doing business as Bankshire Specialty Co., at Oxford, from further alleged violation of ceiling prices on furniture. Final hearing in the case was set for February 2.

Garden Club Book Shower And Tea Committee Met On Wednesday

The Book Shower and Tea Committee of the Bay-Waveland Garden Club met on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. A. C. Exileos and completed plans for the Tea which will be held on Thursday, February 8, at 3:30 p. m. at Hotel Reed and the price of admission is a book (or books) which will go to the Merchant Marine Library Association.

What do you know about the American Merchant Marines and what they stand for? This is what General Dwight D. Eisenhower has to say: "Every man in this allied command is quick to express his admiration for the loyalty, courage and fortitude of the officers and men of the Merchant Marine. We count upon their efficiency and their utter devotion to duty as we do our own. They have never failed us yet."

An editorial in the Los Angeles Herald Express says in part: "Had you ever given serious consideration to the part the Merchant Marine seamen is playing in the war effort? Had you realized that casualties among these hardy sailors and engineers is greater, in proportion, than the casualties in any other service? The whole story of their courage their sacrifice, their heroism probably will not be told till after the war—and perhaps not even then—for many a story of heroism must go unexplained and unheralded with no survivors to give details."

The supply vessels of the Merchant Marine service carry all the munitions, oil, gas, tanks, food and other essentials for the armed forces. Do you know what the AMMLA does? It provides books for the ships of the American Merchant Marine. It maintains shore lending libraries where the seamen may personally select reading matter. It lends seamen technical books to study at sea and ashore for increased skill and higher ratings. It sends libraries to remote Lightships, Lighthouses, Coast Guard Stations and Maritime Training Stations.

In 1943 the AMMLA supplied 8,054 libraries to 2,198 merchant ships representing 346,000 books. 60,000 books went to U. S. Coast Guard Lighthouse and Lightship service and 1,000,000 books to the AMMLA libraries distributed to 9,500 stations. Total books sent to the AMMLA libraries in 1943 was 1,000,000.

Read this letter: "I really fully realize how long and drawn out spare time is at sea. We can't go down to the corner for a soda or a highball nor can we go to the movies after work. Weekends are the same as any other day to us. Our watches are broken nor do we drop the 'hook' and take two days off. I am merely trying to point out the actual need of literature of any type. Your books have broken the tedious monotony of many an hour and converted it into a stimulating and interesting period of leisure. I shall not neglect to mention the magazines. The publishers would be glad and sad if they were to see their magazines after 60 days on the ocean. Glad that they had been thoroughly enjoyed and said to be 'good' pages which even the artists and set-up men would not recognize as their own."

You are doing a wonderful job and I hope the good work gets around so that more of our Merchant Marine ships may have more and better books in the future."—R. R. Pauley, purser.

Please remember, "And I do mean you" that the Book Shower Tea will be held on Thursday, February 8, at 3:30 p. m. at Hotel Reed and that YOU are to bring a NEW book. Please do not give to the great cause what you would not keep for yourself. These are your sons and the sons of your friends so give them the best. They are giving their best—their lives if necessary.

A book that you have read and liked is not considered a new book. A book that you have had stored away in your garage, is Western and mystery stories are acceptable. Pocket editions are acceptable. Be sure to attend. Be sure to give books and books.

Byrnes the National Congress of Parents and Teachers has cancelled its 1945 convention, which was scheduled for May 21-23 in Denver, Colorado. Meetings of the National Board of Managers scheduled for the days immediately preceding and following the convention were also cancelled.

"This cancellation," Mrs. Jenkins said, "is in accord with the National Congress policy of doing everything possible to assist in the war effort. Elections scheduled to be held at the convention will be conducted by mail under an emergency procedure provided for in the by-laws of the Congress."

FUTURE OUTLOOK

Ever since I came back from my American Red Cross inspection trip in Europe, I have been wishing I could talk individually to all of you who have worked so hard in the chapters here at home.

But as that is impossible, I would like to write you, in a very personal way, about my trip as it applies to you and your job in the American Red Cross.

First, I want you to know just how much your own individual effort has counted in the big program of the American Red Cross overseas. The more I saw of our work there, in England, and Italy and France, the more I realize the part each chapter plays in making that work possible. The chapters, their workers and their supporters are the American Red Cross. If you had slackened or failed, even a little, your chapter would have failed by that much in carrying its share of the total load; and the American Red Cross could not have done as complete, or as big a job.

I am anxious that you realize exactly how important your own share in wartime crisis. Some people are beginning to think the war is almost over, and there will be less and less for the American Red Cross to do. That, of course, is not so. From what I saw in France and Italy, and from what I know about the Pacific, the end of the war is nowhere in sight. After conferring with Generals Eisenhower, Bradley, Patton and Clark, I foresee an increase rather than a decrease in the need for American Red Cross services on the continent from now and for some time after the fighting is over.

Our club and field workers have been doing a magnificent job everywhere. I can't tell you how impressed I was, at all the places I visited, with the quality of this work and high type of people we have in our service. Some of these men and women, like the fighting men themselves, have been living in mud and rain, working 16 hours a day. The military has the highest respect for them.

We plan now to keep these workers with the American troops until they all come home. Our servicemen and women will be tired and homesick, and they will need the American Red Cross to cheer them up and untangle their personal and family problems, even more after the fighting stops than now.

We know, too, that we must keep our workers in the hospitals until the last soldier and sailor is discharged. Likewise, the chapters must stay mobilized to aid the ex-servicemen through the many complexities of his return to civilian life.

I can say to you without hesitation that there won't be any let-up in our activities in Europe for at least the next twelve months.

The Pacific situation is becoming much more grave. You, of course, know that the war out there is not the walk-over it appears from casual newspaper reading. To get the complete picture, we have to dig a little deeper.

You may be interested in some sobering facts based on official information from the War Department.

SALARIES OF MAYOR AND COMMISSION COUNCIL RAISED AT SPECIAL ELECTION

On Wednesday, January 31st the electorate of Bay St. Louis voted an increase in salary to the Mayor and Commissioners of the City of Bay St. Louis.

There were 504 votes cast at the election; 316 for the adoption of the ordinance increasing the salaries of the Mayor and Commissioners to $300.00 per month, and 181 votes against the adoption of the ordinance. There were 13 spoiled ballots.

This ordinance goes into effect on February 1st, 1945.

We feel that the officials were deserving of an increase in salary. When they entered office twelve years ago the salary was $225.00. At their own instance they reduced the salaries to $200.00 and allowed it to remain at this figure for over ten years and only within the past year, or a little longer, have they increased it to $225.00 per month.

We feel that the people of Bay St. Louis realize that their officers could not continue under the present conditions at the salary they were paid, and we must take into consideration the fact that taxes reduce this amount considerably. We feel that certainly the heads of our city government should be paid a salary in proportion, at least, to other hire.

Mrs. Lula Crump Dies In Washington

News has been received here of the death last week in Washington, D. C., of Mrs. Lula Crump, mother of Miss Nannie-Mayes Crump.

The body was brought to Gulfport for interment and the funeral was held last Sunday afternoon with the rites of the Baptist Church, with Dr. Henry T. Brookshire, Rev. P. S. Dodge and Rev. W. S. Allen, officiating.

The Bay St. Louis friends of Miss Crump extend sympathy and the Echo of which she was an attaché, extends sympathy also.

Womens Benefit Association

The W. B. A. entertained at their annual card party on Wednesday evening at the W. O. W. hall with most of its members present.

Games were played and there was dancing and delicious refreshments served.

Miss Levia Engman reigned as queen of the evening with Miss Emerald Fayard as king with a large court.

Prizes were won for costumeing and games and a general good time was enjoyed.

The affair was a colorful and lovely one and provided a pleasant release from strain and stress.

Hears From Son

Judge and Mrs. H. T. Fayard were notified by the War Department that their son Pfc. Herman T. Fayard was reported missing in action. Since then they have had two letters one dated December 5 saying that he had been wounded and was in a Belgian hospital; the second was dated December 19 and stated that his injury was a shrapnel wound in his left arm and that it was not too serious.

Pvt. Fayard is in the Army Engineering Corps.

It is hoped he will soon be out of the hospital.

formation from our War, Navy, and State Departments:

"It may take years, rather than months, to defeat Japan.

One and a half to two years after the defeat of Germany is considered minimum."

"Japan is capable of increasing her production of almost every category of war equipment and military supplies."

We might as well face it. The end of this global war won't come quickly or easily. The heavy work and the real injuries lie ahead. No one of us can afford to quit, for a long time to come.

From now on, our work on Pacific battle fronts will increase, rather than lessen. We will need more hospital workers, more supplies, more help. And even when peace finally comes, the American Red Cross still will face the heavy aftermath, just as we soon will be facing it in Europe. Again, we must stay with our servicemen who await demobilization in dreary far-away places. We must stay on in the hospitals, in the demobilization camps here, and in the communities to which they return. You, in your chapter, will carry an increasing load on behalf of the ex-servicemen. There will be many situations in your own community that will need American Red Cross help long after the war is over.

I will write you further about these, from time to time.

I am very proud of the work you already have done. Believe me, the American Red Cross needs you now more than ever. We can't count on you and your chapter workers to the end.

PREDICTS BETTER LIVING STANDARD

BEARDSLEY RUMI, author of the Pay-as-you-go Tax Plan, which was widely forecast as a simplification of the matter of making income tax returns, predicts a post-war living standard probably forty per cent higher than the pre-war era.

The New York financier expects some confusion in the reconversion period but says that afterwards we can look for a higher standard of living and for an employment picture different from anything we have ever seen before. He adds that higher average weekly earnings will be necessary to maintain the higher living standards.

Mr. Rumi expresses the opinion that the Government's wartime controls have been "remarkably successful" and suggests that they should be gradually, not abruptly, relaxed at the end of the war. He thinks that the nation should attempt to maintain post-war prices at approximately current levels in order to prevent chaotic economic conditions.

READY TO TAKE A PROFIT

INCREASING shortages of consumer goods, plus the bulging pocketbooks of potential buyers create strong inflationary pressure and tend to make profitable black market operations.

The reorganization of civilian economy in this country is a vital part of the war job of the nation. Too often individuals fail to appreciate the significance of their "smart efforts" to secure scarce articles. Without thinking of the war effort, they pay extra prices or give unjustified bonuses for service.

The home front must support the war effort without reserve. This includes loyal support of rationing and price control. If either device breaks down, the nation will get on an inflationary spree that will disorganize civilian economy and do irreparable injury to war production.

There are always people in a country willing to make an extra profit without regard to the procedure involved. Consequently, with rationed goods becoming scarcer and new scarcities in the making, there will be Americans ready to violate the regulations of the Government in order to supply citizens at a price.

PRISONERS TO TELL THEIR STORY

THE American Red Cross announces that a group of repatriated prisoners-of-war from Germany and escapees from Japanese prison camps will tour the United States to give next-of-kin a comprehensible and enlightening story of conditions in enemy camps and hospitals.

There are always people in a country willing to make an extra profit without regard to the procedure involved. Consequently, with rationed goods becoming scarcer and new scarcities in the making, there will be Americans ready to violate the regulations of the Government in order to supply citizens at a price.

The message that these men will carry to the people of this country may be somewhat limited by the experiences of the war but their appearance will do much to make people at home understand what is going on in enemy countries where a number of Americans are at the mercy of their foes.

VISITING HOME FROM OVERSEAS

ANNOUNCEMENT that the War Department has removed all limitations on the number of soldiers who may receive thirty-day furloughs, should not mislead the families of men overseas, because, after all, the war will continue until victory is achieved.

General George C. Marshall has announced that the number of servicemen returning from war zones will "increase markedly" in the next few months and that theater commanders have the authority to permit the men to return whenever, in their judgment, they can be spared.

It is natural, of course, for families to want to see the men who have been overseas and for the men themselves to want to see their families. While a great many may receive furloughs, the total of those who come home can only be a fraction of those abroad.

The people at home should extend a warm welcome to the fortunate soldiers, sailors, marines and airmen who get the coveted furloughs and remember, despite disappointment over the inability of others to return, that the men who come home have earned their furloughs. The services have set up a system by which to grant furloughs in accordance with a rule which, it is believed, is fair to all.

Regardless of the fear of some people, hard work has seldom killed anyone.

Advertising is the art of making people know that you have what they ought to have.

Peace can only come through mutual understanding and the establishment of world trade on a fair basis.

It may be human nature to criticize others, but we find it hard to understand those who never find anything good anywhere.

Going to church has never hurt anybody that we ever heard about. That's a pretty good recommendation for church-going, we think.

Now is the time to plan your spring Victory Garden and order your seed, so neither you nor your neighbor's chickens may not be disappointed.

Feeding the nation and a large part of the world may be a glorious calling for our farmers, but they are anxious also for adequate cash returns.

ARMY FACILITIES

It seems that army plants and facilities in Mississippi will soon be humming with new activity. It was announced several weeks ago that the big Camp McLain near Grenada would be restricted from active service and offered for sale but later reports from Washington say it may be put into active service again, pending a demand for increased equipment and ammunition. It is also reported that the Flora Powder-loading Plant, built at a cost of approximately $17,000,000 but not used for the purpose intended, will now become what it was first intended to be—a powder-loading plant. There is also a report that the Jackson Army Air-base, not very active in recent months, may be put back into active service. The Gulf Ordnance Plant at Aberdeen is being improved and additions made costing more than four million dollars. It also seems well understood that additional providing for 500 more beds and offices accordingly will be made at Foster General Hospital in Jackson. These reports are not all official but if the war goes very much longer it is almost certain that they will work out as now indicated.

SCRAP PAPER

When things as simple as saving scrap paper enter into the war effort it would seem that every one, even to the small children, can have a part in winning the war. On Saturday, January 20, in the City of Jackson there was gathered and turned in 100,000 pounds of scrap paper. The government is calling for this scrap paper which is used in numerous ways to help win the war. Tell the children about it and what it will mean and they will save it. Get the children at home and at school and the school janitors interested and they will get it all. When deliveries are ready they might notify county agents or superintendents of education.

TAX COLLECTIONS

Mississippi started the new calendar year with a general balance in the treasury of more than fourteen million dollars. The first twenty-three days of 1945 have brought in through the tax commission $1,760,436.84. More than a million of this sum came in from the sales tax. In the year 1944 there was collected through the tax commission $33,677,051.78, exceeding the previous year by more than three and a half million. Since A. H. Stone took over the chairmanship of this department, May 1, 1932, he has collected $190,460,524.06.

OIL AND GAS

H. M. Morse, oil and gas supervisor for the state with offices on the first floor of the New Capitol, continues to be a very busy man checking up on the oil development, issuing drilling permits, and recording a history of the wells brought into production. Mr. Morse is very optimistic over the oil development in the state, real and potential. In the year 1944, total production in the state reached a total of 16,000,000 barrels. Since August 1939 when the first well came through in the Tinsley field the total production in the state (from 1939 to 1944) has been approximately 94,000,000 barrels.

TRAFFIC BOARD

Governor Bailey has appointed a traffic board composed of representative people over the state in an effort to have a better enforcement of traffic laws and regulations. The appointments are as follows: C. Bradley, Commissioner of Public Safety; Richard Stratton, Jackson; Judge John Stennis, DeKalb; Judge T. E. McElroy, Oxford; Judge John Foykendall, Charleston; R. T. Jarvis, Booneville; Judge J. F. Guyton, Hazlehurst; Judge William Haralson, Hattiesburg; George Ditt, Biloxi; W. Y. Brane, Meridian; J. M. Fisher, Motor Transport Association; Mrs. Ethel J. Harris, Marks; H. R. McGowan, Beulah; John Payne, Gulfport; Mayor W. J. Brynes, Natchez; John Payne, Gulfport; C. S. Longino, Clarksdale; Miss Lena Bronck, Jackson; Fred Todd, Chief of Highway Patrol, Jackson.

ENRICH MEAL AND FLOUR

The enrichment of bread, flour, corn meal, grits, and oleomargarine as provided in a law introduced by Mrs. J. B. Bruce of Carroll County and passed at the last session of the legislature becomes effective on February first. It has been announced by Dr. Felix J. Underwood, of the Public Health Department, that the law will not be enforced rigidly against stocks already on hand, but it will be the policy of the enforcement officers to allow a reasonable time without prosecution to those who are making an honest effort to comply with the new law. However, enforcement will be rigid where any effort is made to purposely evade the law. Dr. Underwood believes the new law is important for the health of the people.

GOVERNOR BAILEY RETURNS

Governor Thomas L. Bailey, accompanied by Mrs. Bailey, returned last week from Washington where he attended the inauguration of President Roosevelt. Governor Bailey was busy last week delivering a number of addresses. He announced that the Rural Life Conference scheduled for February 12-13 has been called off on account of the ban placed on conventions.

RAKING AROUND

An effort was made last week to commit the lower house of the Georgia legislature to the repeal of the poll tax in that state; but the movement failed. — Congressman, Jamie Whitten has been placed on the sub-committee of the House Appropriations Committee, which is quite a distinction. This sub-committee of seven members passes on all appropriations for agricultural purposes. — The conviction of Pvt. Donald F. Wood, Camp Shelby soldier from New York, on a charge of murdering Robert A. Lipscomb, Jackson business man, was affirmed by the Supreme Court on Monday of last week. The execution was set for March 15. — President M. L. Smith of Millsaps College was elected last week as president of the International Association of Methodist Colleges in a meeting held in Atlantic City. Dr. Smith holds a number of high positions in the Methodist Church.

AND NOW TOMORROW STARS LADD WITH LORETTA YOUNG AT A. & G. THEATRE

Immediately upon Alan Ladd's release from the Army on a medical discharge, Paramount producers started the cameras grinding on the screen version of the Rachel Field best-seller, "And Now Tomorrow."

In this romantic drama by the author of "All This and Heaven, Too," Ladd co-stars with Loretta Young in what we are told is one of the most beautiful love stories to reach the screen. Ladd's characterization is a complete departure from his famous "killer" roles. He plays the part of a medico who falls in love with his patient, Loretta, who is engaged to another.

The film, which opens Sunday and Monday at the A. & G. Theatre, features Barry Sullivan as Miss Young's fiancé and Susan Hayward as her younger sister, with whom Barry falls in love. Ladd accidentally learns of the situation but is professionally restrained from telling Loretta, and speaking of his own love.

Irving Pichel, whose past successes are innumerable has made a great dramatization, it is said, of this touching story. The sympathetic role of Loretta, as the girl whose life depends upon her health being restored, is acutely contrasted to the restrained characterizations played by the other three, none of whom feels justified in telling her the truth.

Loretta and Ladd were last seen in the hit production, "China," which was the latter's last picture before joining the armed forces. His return to the screen in "And Now Tomorrow" terminates a two year's absence.

ORTE THEATRE SUNDAY AND MONDAY "MAISIE GOES TO RENO"

Ann Sothern, John Hodiak
Starred—Best Yet in M-G-M
Highly Popular Series

"Maisie is back in action again—and that means laughs and fun for everyone. Her newest Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer starring picture, 'Maisie Goes to Reno,' Shows Sunday and Monday at the Orte Theatre. 'Maisie Goes to Reno' is a fast-moving hilarious piece of movie entertainment, a film you'll want to see."

Ann Sothern—for of course, she plays Maisie again—is at her freshest and buoyant best in the new picture. On vacation from the airplane plant where she holds down a welding job, Maisie heads for Reno and finds herself mixed up with a gang of forgers when she comes to the aid of a young soldier whose wife is being victimized by the gang.

In the course of things she meets a blackjack dealer, played by John Hodiak, who also becomes involved in the goings-on. Their adventures will hold your interest every moment of the running time and you'll laugh and cry with Maisie as she sees the adventure through to a very happy ending.

Everyone in the cast of "Maisie Goes to Reno" deserves high praise for a job well done. The hand-picked performers include Tom Drake, Martha Linden, Donald Meek, Ava Gardner and Paul Cavanaugh, among others. You'll remember Drake as the promising young actor who scored such a sensational hit in "Two Girls and a Sailor." Miss Gardner, the beautiful newcomer who clicked in "Three Men in White," and who certainly is headed for stardom in her own right.
